and by then that I was kind of happy.

interested in
that smiling

To remember how long it lasted, I never lost sorrow. It had never been like that before.

Even at work,

I realize
that my whole
nothing isn't big.

It was surprisingly
easy to tell when he was embarrassed.

and he's got broken
eyes though
we weren't
talking.

I went up
telling him
about every secret I knew

Nothing
worse out there than I
wanted

Everything
that existed
before I knew
was dead

Everyone
before I
found it

I was troubled by nothing

I was trapped by that walls I'd piled up.

It was me
who moved
and stayed back.

I'd never felt like that before.
